

Are looking for an experienced
CEO

To make a real difference to our organisation

Central Football is inviting expressions of interest for the position of Chief Executive to deliver the strategic direction which enables effective service delivery of football to players/coaches/referees and volunteers in our Federation.

The Central Football Board is looking for an individual with knowledge sports organisations in the New Zealand context and the following skills:

- Strategic thinking ability
- A strong drive for results
- The ability to communicate effectively with people at all levels
- A commitment to quality and excellence
- The ability to foster and maintain effective relationships with key stakeholders
- A strong team orientation
- Proven leadership ability
- Commercial acumen
- Sound time management and organisational planning ability
- The ability to identify and deal with emerging issues and complex challenges
- A 'can do' attitude

If this sounds like you please email requesting a position description, or send your CV and covering letter to: rod.pelosi@xtra.co.nz

Closing Date: 13 September 2010, 4:00pm